Spoke with Kris again. He was unable to locate the property documents, so I have instructed admin to resend them. He is currently negotiating on two other properties for his buyers: 19 Morey Street, Karabar, a six-bedroom property around the $1 million mark, and a property on Waterloo Street, Queanbeyan, with approximately 765m² of land, which is larger than Cameron Road and around $950,000. Based on these alternatives, Kris does not believe $1.05 million reflects the current market value for Cameron Road and indicated his expectations would be lower. I explained that Cameron Road is considerably newer than Morey Street, with the rear residence being less than five years old and the primary residence having been freshly renovated. he will sepak with his clients

Kris is a buyer's agent currently representing three active buyers. They are looking at approximately 3–4 other properties, with Cameron Road currently shortlisted as one of their options. Another property they are considering is around the $975,000 mark. Kris was out at the time of the call but advised he will call back in approximately 30 minutes once he is back in the office.

Wed 9 Sep 2026	Jim remains interested in the property and advised that $1.05 million is still within his budget, although if he were to make an offer, he would likely be looking at around the $1 million mark. He will try to bring his family through the property this weekend. Jim is not an investor and is fortunately in a position where he does not need to liquidate other assets to fund the purchase. He noted that, in his view, the current market does not support a $1.05 million valuation, particularly given the properties on the northern side of the road that have remained on the market for extended periods following auction. We also discussed the property's Airbnb potential at length.

Hi Kelvin, My name is Maya and I work at Auction Advantage. I received your enquiry about 18 and 18A Cameron Road from earlier in the week. We are managing the campaign of the property as well as the Airbnb of the front home at the moment. Enquiry: Are you an agent responsible for managing properties? I'd appreciate your confirmation so we can discuss the details further. Please contact me. Is this a property you can see yourself owning? The phone number we have on file is not valid, please let me know your best contact number. Kind Regards, Maya

Wed 19 Aug 2026	Hello Maya - thanks for your message and sorry for not replying sooner. We're not going further with 18 and 18A as they are a tad too small for us. However, we are looking for a 3 or 4 bedroom house that is not the traditional set up but offers some degree of separation for 2 old codgers with a wish for a bit of independence from one another and 2 adult children who might wish to visit and stay (usually separately)- or dual occupation would be perfect, but I know they are rare. Anyway, probs we're not the only ones looking for that, but if you find anything, we'd be grateful, ta

Wed 26 Aug 2026	Hi lovely. No I don't believe so. The primary house won't be big enough for family unfortunately
Wed 26 Aug 2026	Hi Bronwyn, is 18 and 18a Cameron road, Queanbeyan a property that you are still interested in? Kind Regards Maya
Wed 19 Aug 2026	Bronwyn has gone down from a 9 out of 10 to a 4 out of 10. She loved the home but what her families primary need is leaning towards something larger if she were to go ahead with her Plan B it would be great but thats not her current focus. - Maya
Wed 19 Aug 2026	Hi Bronwyn, Confirming the the ducted is heating and cooling. The fireplace is electric not gas And it is not purely decorative, it can provide heat. We have it disconnected at the moment as the central heating is well and truly good enough for guests of Airbnb - Maya
Wed 19 Aug 2026	Hey Oliver, Just finished up with Bronwyn. Bobby and Jim were not able to take my call. Bronwyn- would like to confirm the Rinnai dusted system is heating and cooling? the fireplace is electric not gas? goes the fireplace actually emit warmth? she loved the home said it was. beautiful had a minor concern about a shower lip or something like that, i am going to get her a quote to do it herself because i believe its a cheap fix (writing it here so i do not forget not something for you to worry about in the slightest!). what she needs however may be bigger than this unfortunately. she has a daughter who refuses to move out who has 4 kids so this would not fit them. she is still considering it as she has a sister whom she could live with and this fit would be ideal for that sounds like a bit of family politics to be honest with you they live rural 2.5 hours from canberra, canberra born and raised, the place they live is too hot for 7 months of year and they want to come back to colder climates loved the home again and asked to stay active as a buyer, will call in a week so she has time to think provided her all the documents printed out too! i mentioned if both residences are family occupied they could remove the boundary fence to open up and also mentioned that she can book the airbnb if she'd like to get a feel for the property - she really liked the idea of that! mentioned that we can have a longer settlement or airbnb it for her while she sets up a sale of her current home to help cover mortgage - she liked that too confirmed price conversation is upwards of 1 mil, she works at the canberra hospital and commutes each week so not ideal travel for her - another reason to buy hopefully! has 5 kids, 1 daughter lives with her, 3 live here in canberra regions - Maya
Wed 12 Aug 2026	sons werent able to ge tthrough the proeprty so bronwyn has requested private inspec, will take her thorough at 2pm tomorrow - front house only, have explained the situation with the bac k house and she didnt mind
Wed 5 Aug 2026	used to own dual resi but sold it a few years ago, moving back to be close to family int

	he near future, her son Jacob or Matthew will come this weekend, have texted her the open home times 7/10 and have offered zoom walkthrough also. she doesnt live close so prefers fo rher son to see before she travels out. comfortable around the 1mil benchmark she says this is what she expected.

Shayoni enquired with us at 80 Dalley Crescent but is looking in early stages of investment. She has just sold her other investment property and is mortgage free on her assets so doesn't have a set budget but is in a strong borrowing space. Have described Monash and Queanbeyan comign to market soon and she is very interested in both as I mentioned they are in better aesthetic/cosmetic state. Will send her all relevant documents once we have them. She would be interested to meet with Frank about Buyers Agent Canberra to see what property she can get the best return. Mentioned that monash secondary can be sold off or rented for just over $450 per week. - Maya - 18-05-2026
